RECODING WITH AUDITION

Au

1. Open Adobe Audition, it should be located on the Taskbar or Desktop

   To make sure that you have the proper workspace click on Window -> Workspace -> Reset "Recording and Editing"

   Start a new recording by clicking
   New -> Audio File

   Make sure to name your recording!!!

New Audio File

File Name:	Recording Test
Sample Rate:	44100	Hz
Channels:	Stereo
Bit Depth:	32 (float)	bits

OK   Cancel

Adobe Audition CC 2015

File   Edit   Multitrack   Clip   Effects   Favorites   View   Window   Help

Editor: Recording Test *

0:01.483

Selection/View

	Start	End	Duration
Selection	0:01.483	0:01.567	0:00.084
View	0:01.149	0:02.410	0:01.261

Stopped

44100 Hz • 32-bit (float) • Stereo   3.13 MB   0:09.287   207.03 GB free

2. Click the red buton to start recording
   Click it again to pause, once more to resume.

   Use the scroll mouse wheel to change the viewing size of your recording
   Zoom In (Scroll Up)
   Zoom Out (Scroll Down)

   When zoomed out, click and drad this window to move through your recording

3. To move to a specific point in your recording clik and drag the marker obove the timeline.

   To edit your recording, click and drag within the main window area to make a selection. You can delete selctions by hitting the delete key.

   When saving make sure to have this location

Location: C:\Users\Student204-28\Desktop

Recording
Test.wav